Chapter 1

Introduction

1.1 Background

The Andhra University is located in the Uplands of Visakhapatnam, which Dr. C.R. Reddy prophetically called “The City of Destiny” with the magnificent ‘Kailasa Hill as the backdrop and the mystic blue of the Bay of Bengal in its front, the University enjoy a unique setting and its calm and serenity inspire the seekers after knowledge, it occupies a sprawling campus of 200 hectares dotted with more than 100 buildings.

To start with, it had no home of its own and started in a building called “Hotel Cecil” with an area of 53 acres around it with only 4 departments and less than 20 scholars and 6 teachers. It took years of devoted work of scholars and administrators to build this University as one of the highest citadel of learning in the country with international reputation.

The University Campus is a self-contained township with two administration blocks out of which one is exclusively for housing the examination sections, well-equipped laboratories and workshops, a huge Library ranking 5th in magnitude in university libraries in the country. The University has its own Press & Publications division and an Employment Information & Guidance Bureau run by the State Government for the benefit of the student community. It has also a student centre and sports complex including an indoor gymnasium hall.

There are 400 Affiliated Colleges (both Government and Non-Government) located in five districts of its jurisdiction (viz.) Srikakulam, Vizianagaram, Visakhapatnam, East Godavari and West Godavari besides four University Colleges and four P.G. Centres.

The “A” grade accredited to Andhra University by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council as a result of the united and active efforts of the academic and administrative staff and the University’s gracious past record is the highlight of the year.
